Subject: Model Code of Conduct-Publication of any advertisement of Central Government in the newspapers of poll going States and States having circulation in poll going States- regarding.

Sir,

I am directed to state that the Commission has recently observed that certain advertisements highlighting welfare schemes and achievements of the Central Government and State Governments are being published by some non-poll going State Governments, in the editions of newspapers in the States where elections are going on. The Commission considers this to be a violation of the spirit of the Model Code of Conduct.

The Commission has therefore directed that instructions contained in its letter No.437/6/CG/2013-CC&BE dated 9th October, 2013 (copy enclosed) shall be strictly followed/applied to all such advertisements, issued by non-poll going State Governments during the Model Code of Conduct period.

The receipt of the letter may kindly be acknowledged.

Yours faithfully,

(K. Ajaya Kumar)
Principal Secretary
